

Upon its arrival at Aberdeen, Washington, on 5 January, 1941, the Norwegian Motorship BRENAS was inspected by the Customs Officers, Aberdeen, and the following armament was found on board:

Orig

SMALL ARMS: 3 Springfield rifles with 809 cartridges
1 Remington rifle with 1600 cartridges.

It is believed that these ships are armed for defense purposes only.

F. C. Hingsburg
F. C. HINGSBURG, Commander, USCG,
CHIEF OF STAFF, SEATTLE DISTRICT.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT