INTELLIGENCE DIVISION MEMORANDUM NO. 101-44

Subj: American tankers LA PLACENTIA and CATHWOOD; disapproval of sale

The United States Maritime Commission considered the applications of the Union Oil Company of California, Union Oil Building, Los Angeles, California, dated 29 September, 1944, for its approval of the sale of the subject vessels to Brazilian corporations named therein, and on 10 October, 1944, directed that they be denied as not being in the best interests of the United States.
