

HEADQUARTERS

CONFIDENTIAL

UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

WASHINGTON

February 21, 1942

Subject: Persons suspected of un-American tendencies.

Reference:

Summary of Information:

The following movements of persons suspected of un-American tendencies have been reported by a reliable source:

Bernhard OLLSON, former chief engineer on the American SS E. T. BEDFORD, relieved for a vacation in December, 1941.

William K. KRONISCH, former first assistant engineer, American SS E. T. BEDFORD, left vessel for employment in a shipyard near Englewood, New Jersey.

Henrich SELLENIUS, now attached to American SS E. T. BEDFORD.

Walter von RIEGEN, former chief engineer on the American SS E. T. BEDFORD, now undergoing treatment in the U. S. Marine Hospital, Staten Island, New York.

Distribution:

ONI
Operations, CG

Evaluation:

Source: Reliable
Information: Reliable

FOR DEFENSE

BUY UNITED STATES
SAVINGS
BONDS
AND STAMPS