

CONFIDENTIAL

HEADQUARTERS

UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

WASHINGTON

24 January, 1942.

Subject: Uncharted lights.

Reference:

Summary of Information:

A report received at Coast Guard Headquarters indicates that the master of the American SS FREEMAN, Pocohontas Steamship Company (Pocohontas Fuel Company, Norfolk agents) reported sighting two lights both flashing about .6 sec. light, .6 sec. eclipse at 2:20 a.m., 22 January, 1942. One light about 5 miles NE of Fenwick Island Shoal Lighted Whistle Buoy 2 and the other about 5 miles ENE (mag) from the same buoy. The first light is reported to have been seen for about 40 minutes.

Distribution:
ONIEvaluation:
Source: Reliable
Information: ReliablePrevious distribution:
DIO, 5th ND